Chips

Now we are holding our breaths, watching to see what Maud Crum's greatest team will do to the forward-passing machine which is C. U. Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party. ETAOIN, etaoinsdru—to say the least. Well, little boys and girls, we will certainly be there.

Tough, isn't it, that "Reds" All-house, end and captain, must watch the game from the sidelines. We certainly don't envy that boy. Apparently all the Iron Men are still made of iron. They'll need all their iron when they go out northeast.

Next month the well-known Vodyll will be perpetrated in the gym. A contest will be held, we hear, to choose acts by elimination, instead of spreading them over two or three nights. We will be in for a new treat, we know; this Vodyll always transcends comment. It is a strange and wonderful thing.

We are always running into points of our past history which we had forgotten. Once we were famous. As witness this excerpt from the Rollo Boys, which appeared in the Literary Supplement of The Hatchet last year: "On the way Dick, in his simple, unaffected way, regaled the party with tales of his American boyhood. 'Although I am a man,' he said, and his mustache bristled in the dim light of evening, 'I am still a boy at heart,' and with that he drew out of one of his trick pockets a copy of 'The American Boy,' and was soon so deep in perusal that the party soon was off the trail."

Football now gives place to basketball, a game which never fails to drive us crazy with excitement, but which leaves us with the feeling, "Compared to football or baseball, this is rather an unsatisfactory game." However, as far as this goes, men's basketball is not in a class with the women's game. We were watching one of these girls' games, and the fair opponents at one end were discussing frocks, men and parties, while at the other end co-eds frantically battled the ball toward the basket.

But to get back to basketball. Kappa Alpha has won the championship of League Two, while at this writing Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Kappa Sigma have yet to fight it out in their own ballwick. In spite of all trials and tribulations that it goes through, this series is the real intramural contest of this university and excites the most interest.

We play Navy in basketball this year; another step in advance. Undoubtedly the fast schedule must have uncovered good men, which will help. However, we are without one of our old towers of strength, Fred Wallace, probably the greatest basketball player who ever came here and who is said to be in the wilds of Oklahoma coaching.

English debaters were entertained by the fraternities and the Columbian Debating Society. They didn't get a minute's rest. One enterprising student, who drives a taxicab, got a $7.50 job chauffeuring them about town, which was a windfall of luck. One of the Britons, we find out from a fraternity man, has a handshake just exactly like the old town pump. Good boy, however.

Little boys and girls, we were entirely unable to give you a list of substitutions. A hint from the public prints is sufficient: Concord State—about twenty-five; G. W.—several. Don't worry; we'll have one next week that'll knock your eye out.

Although the Frosh football team beat Dahlgren by only one touchdown, we really feel that the game which was hardest on them was the Penn State game. Incidentally, they should have no trouble in walloping the C. U. frosh, for which let us sing hosannas.

The big wind, tornado, or what you will, which devastated part of our fair city, and did NOT blow down some of our antique brick structures, brought with it a rain which wrought havoc with that ancient and honorable sport of the campus, to wit: the pits into which horseshoes are pitched were filled with rain water and the pegs had to be moved before play could go on. Write to your congressman about this!

Winter seems to be at last upon us, and the Coca Cola is yielding to hot chocolate. We view this with alarm, since it exactly doubles campus expenditures. Cokes are five cents, chocolate ten.

Apropos of that, The Hatchet office is one place where a perennial bull session holds forth. Anyone who wishes to study the genius Joe College need only go there to hear the wildest, most improbable tales that imagination can conjure.

See you at the Victory tea dance.
DICK ROLLO.

Tomorrow afternoon two of the greatest football teams ever turned out at George Washington and Catholic Universities will meet in the season's final test of strength in the Brookland Stadium. The game will be called at 2 o'clock.

Each team feels that it will walk off the field victorious at the sound of the final whistle. Each team has had an exceptionally good season, winning most of its games and performing well in defeat. Each team now feels that it is at the very peak of condition and we are assured that no energy will be spared to win the victory that will make the season a huge success or a dismissal failure. Since Coach Harry W. Crum started to build a team out of nothing, now recognized as one of the major elvans of the East, four years ago George Washington lost two and won a single contest out of three games played against the Cardinals. This year should see the score of victories for each team tie at two all.

G. W. Record Impressive

The Cardinals have played eight games, most of them against the best elvans of the East; scoring wins over City College of New York, American University, Rutgers, Fordham, Ursinus, St. Vincent, and Concord State College, while the only game lost was a hard fought battle against Penn State. The Crummen have scored 142 points to 38 for their opponents.

G. W. CLUB TO MEET TO PLAN ANNUAL HOP

Officers For Coming Year To Be Elected at Meeting Tonight in Lisner Hall

The Men's G. W. Club will meet tonight at 8:30 in Room 2L of Lisner Hall. At this time officers for the coming year will be elected, and final plans for the annual football hop will be made.

As at present advised the hop will be held in the University Gymnasium early in December. Per custom, the football team, which has made such an exceptional record this year, will be honor guests. Various members of the team, together with President Marvin and Coach Crum, are expected to say a few words.

All letter men of the University, whether or not they are members of the G. W. Club, are asked to attend the meeting tonight. Inasmuch as this meeting was called because of the small attendance last week, it is sincerely hoped that the consciences of the members of the club will resume function before 8:30 tonight.

Greek Council to Give Tea Dance For Team

President Marvin and Football Squad to be Guests of Honor on Thanksgiving

The Thanksgiving Tea Dance to be held by the Interfraternity Council in Corcoran Hall after the game Thursday, promises to be one of the outstanding events of the present semester. The hours of the dance will be from five until eight, during which time a band led by John Slaughter will show those present what "hot" music really is. The entire football squad headed by Coach Crum will be the guests of honor. This occasion will give the student body of the University a chance to show its appreciation for the team which has come through the most successful season that has ever been known.

President Marvin, Dean Doyle, Dean Rose, Professors Collier, Roe, Crandall, and many other members of the faculty are expected to be present.

G. W. VERBALISTS BOW TO BRITONS, 216 VOTES TO 178

Gym Scene of Debate Between Colonials and Invaders Friday, Nov. 18

AUDIENCE INTERESTED BY FIERY ARGUMENTS

Islanders Uphold Resolution That Most Effective War Measure Is Pacifism

Under the enflaming fire of the invading British debaters, George Washington University's varsity trio fell in defeat, with 216 votes to 178 against them in the annual international forensic contest held in the Gymnasium last Friday evening. The Colonial team failed in their efforts to doom the resolution that "the most effective attitude toward war is an uncompromising pacifism."

The National Union of Students' representatives lay before the audience the argument that, if a pacifistic attitude can be adopted in all the countries of the world, armed force can be dispensed with. They went further and said that an uncompromising attitude could be formed and popular opinion could force diplomats to outlaw war.

George Washington's Argument

The George Washington verbalists tried to disprove this by showing that war is inevitable, has always had a part in the lives of states, and that people cannot be induced to give up all armaments. Throughout all the discussions playful jokes were tossed back and forth against each other, and the various pleasantries kept the audience in good humor throughout the two-hour discussion. President Cloyd Heck Marvin was the presiding officer.

George Washington has to date won two international contests, and by their defeat last week, has lost three. The debate last year was with a Cambridge team, on the subject, "Resolved, That this House opposes the growing tendency of Government to invade the rights of individuals." George Washington has fallen twice to Cambridge, but twice triumphed over Oxford.

G. W. Team's Record

Two of the George Washington debaters had been in last year's international debate. The other, John Seymour, of Maine, toured England last year with his colleagues, William Williamson comes from Oklahoma, and James R. Kirkland hails from the District of Columbia.

The English team will travel to Chicago, meeting other teams on the way. They were the guests of the Interfraternity Council while here, and were feted by the Columbian Debating Society and others. The date of their return to their native land is unknown.

KREGLOW NAMED AS BUSINESS MANAGER

Rolston Lyon Resigns Post as Business Head Due to Lack of Time to Study

A. Frank Kreglow has been appointed Acting Business Manager of The Hatchet, to succeed Rolston Lyon, retiring Business Manager. Lyon has given up his post subject to the acknowledgment of his resignation, because of the encroachment of Hatchet duties on his scholastic work.

The appointment of Kreglow is purely temporary, and is made only in order that there may be no interruption to the orderly conduct of the business of The Hatchet, according to a letter addressed to the Board of Editors by Dean H. G. Doyle, chairman of the Publication Council. Later it is planned to fill the post with a permanent appointee, who is to be selected after competition. Meanwhile, Kreglow is to serve temporarily as a member of the Board of Editors.

In resigning his position, Lyon states that his action is taken because the amount of time required to fill the office of Business Manager will not allow him to uphold the scholastic standards which he has set for his senior year at the University. Lyon entered upon his work early in the year when Milton L. Dennis, who was then Business Manager, resigned to take a position with the United States Battle Monuments Commission at Paris.

Kreglow, besides his temporary appointment to the head of the business staff, is Business Manager of the 1928 Cherry Tree. Prior to his promotion, Kreglow was Advertising Manager of The Hatchet.

Official confirmation of the appointment of Alice Graham and Herbert E. Angel to the Board of Editors of The Hatchet, is contained in a letter from Dean Anna L. Rose to the Chairman of the Board.

MENORAH MEETING

The Menorah meeting has been postponed until November 30 on account of the Thanksgiving holidays.

G. W. Band At Turkey Day Gridiron Battle Is Goal of Pep Club; Plan Big Meeting

Today, in Corcoran Hall 1, the largest Pep Club meeting of this year will be held in preparation for the Catholic University game. Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin will be the speaker of the occasion.

Coach "Maud" Crum, with the varsity gridmen, and Coach Avis, with his Freshmen youngsters, will all be present. Elmer Brown will bring over some stars of last year's Troubadours, who will give an interesting and spectacular feature. The Glee Club will have some representatives in the gathering.

The Pep Club will arrange for a band at the C. U. game. The band will probably be composed of students, although there may be professionals in it. "Hail to the Buff and Blue" will be the main song they will play. Not many students came out this year for the band, it was learned. Next year the Pep Club will try to get an early start in this manner, and have a real, honest-to-goodness student band for the majority of games.

HENRY KILBURN LAW PRESIDENT

Vesey President of First Year; Frank Towles Second Year; Van Alstine Fourth

TIE FOR THIRD YEAR, PRES.

Stephen Blackman and Paul Dingwell Have Equal Number of Votes; New Ballot Necessary

At the general election held for class officers in the Law School Thursday evening Henry T. Kilburn was chosen President of the Student Body. As announced, candidates elected to the following named offices were: President, First Year, H. W. Vesey; Second Year, Frank Towles; Third Year, tie between Stephen Blackman and Paul Dingwell; Fourth Year, F. E. Van Alstine. Secretary-Treasurer, First Year, Justice Chambers; Second Year, H. J. Wells; Third Year, A. J. Hasskari; and Fourth Year, William Smith.

Mr. Kilburn had served as the student Chairman of the Committee on Student Affairs appointed by Dean Van Vleck and was elected without contest to the office of President of the Student Body. The officers of the classes, however, were sharply contested and in the case of the President of the Third Year class it will be necessary to have a further ballot to break the tie existing between Stephen Blackman and Paul Dingwell.

Results of Election

A Committee on Elections under the chairmanship of Vernon H. Brewster gave the following report: We the undersigned duly appointed tellers, hereby certify that the following votes were cast in the student election:

First Year, for President, J. H. Highsmith, 32; A. W. Perry, 11; H. W. Vesey, 37. For Secretary-Treasurer, Justice Chambers, 30; J. D. Stukes, 29; J. T. Wobensmith, 19. Second Year, for President, A. M. Pissaro, 27; Frank Towles, 37. For Secretary, Wilbur Baughman, 26; H. J. Wells, 35.

Third Year, for President, Stephen Blackman, 17; Paul Dingwell, 17; S. J. Hill, 14. For Secretary, A. J. Hasskari, 28; Lena Hyatt, 18. Fourth Year, for President, R. K. McPherson, 16; F. E. Van Alstine, 18. For Secretary-Treasurer, William Smith, no contest.

For President of the Student Body, Henry T. Kilburn, no contest. Vernon H. Brewster, Chairman, E. W. Parkinson, P. Z. Sullivan, B. M. Sandusky.

Cherry Tree Photos To be Made on Campus

Engraving Contract Has Been Let and Printing Contract Will Be Let This Week

Photographers for The Cherry Tree of 1928 will be taken in an entirely different manner than has been the custom in previous years, is the announcement of Margaret Malze, editor of the yearbook.

Instead of having all pictures of students taken at a down-town photographer's, a photographer will visit the campus within a week or two weeks, and will spend a period of two weeks taking photographs. Thus all pictures will be made on the campus and a greater number of students will probably be represented than ever before. The price for the sitting has not been announced, but it will probably be two dollars.

The engraving contract has been let to the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company of Chicago, and the printing contract will probably be let this week.

NO MEETING OF FRENCH CLUB

Le Cercle Gallia will not hold its regular meeting on November 25. The next meeting will be Friday evening, December 9, at 8:15 in the Phi Mu rooms at 2024 G Street.

AXEMEN SWAMP CONCORD STATE BY AERIAL GAME

Invading Colonials Score Seventh Win by Margin of 33 to 0

BURDELL CAREY SHINES, SCORING 4 TOUCHDOWNS

Successful Passes Net Four Six-Polmers; Mountain Lions Fall To Thwart

The powerful Colonial eleven went on an invasion of the West Virginia hills last Saturday and swept the Concord State Mountain Lions into a 33 to 0 defeat by their smooth, machine-like playing. Five thousand people witnessed the game; Concord's biggest game in years.

The Colonials snowed the Concord eleven under by using a highly effective aerial attack. Four of the five George Washington touchdowns came directly through successful passes. Burdell Carey shone brilliantly on the receiving end of the passes, going over the goal line for four touchdowns.

The first touchdown came soon after the opening kick-off when Carey snared a long pass and went through the Concord defense and crossed the last marker for six points. The second counter came in the second quarter when Carey again took a pass over for a score. Stehman, who was making brilliant gains through the line all afternoon, accounted for the third six-pointer when he tore through tackle to cross the goal line. Carey scored the fourth and fifth touchdowns by taking passes over the goal line.

Carey played an "All American" game for George Washington while Stehman was good for many substantial gains when given the ball. Sevy and Lester played fine games for the Concord aggregation.

First Quarter

Concord kicked off, and Lopeman ran the ball back to G. W.'s 45-yard line. On the first play Stehman smashed through for a first down. Sanders, little G. W. back, ripped off eight yards around the end. Two more plays netted the Colonials a first down. A few passes placed George Washington on their opponents' 10-yard line. After an unsuccessful attempt to gain through the line the Crummen failed to complete a pass over the Lions' goal line and the ball went into Concord's possession on their 20-yard marker.

The Lions were unable to gain but advanced 15 yards when George Washington was penalized for being off side. Finding themselves unable to advance the oval against the powerful G. W. defense, Concord punted. The Colonials at once proceeded to register a first down. On the following play Carey received a beautiful pass.

In addition to Miss Campbell, there will be presented Selma Sellinger, Kline whose songs were enthusiastically received by the boys at the training camps during the late war, and Herbert Aldridge, a performer in local grand opera.

CUP TO BE PRESENTED BY DRAMATIC COUNCIL

Permanent Award to Be Made For Best Act

The Board of Directors of the Dramatic Association will award a cup to the sorority, fraternity, or organization, presenting the best act in the Vodyll show to be given in the Gym next month. The cup, which in all events will stir up even keener competition among G. W. organizations than ever before, will remain in permanent possession of the winner.

The vodyll will be given probably on December 15 or 16, and tryouts are to be held in the near future. The Dramatic Association is urging everyone to cooperate in making it the best of the annual entertainments.

WASHINGTON, D. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1927

TURKEY DAY

With the big football game of the season being played tomorrow at Catholic University Stadium in Brookland, a recapitulation of the season so far is indicated.

Out of eight starts so far, Coach Crum's Colonials have won seven. The University is regaining the football prestige which it had some twenty years past, and is making a name for itself in the gridiron circles of the East. The Crummen have rolled up 142 points to their opponents' 38.

This is due to a fine coach, a loyal and fighting team, and a student body which has shown more interest than in many years. No matter how the game tomorrow goes, the season has been a decided success.

Coach "Maud" Crum is now rounding out his fourth season as athletic director here. The Hatchet seems to remember that his original contract ran for four years.

This contract should be renewed, and in terms favorable to Coach Crum.

CHAPELS AGAIN

Frankly, we are puzzled. We give up in despair. At the beginning of the year we heard many complaints about, "Where are the chapels?" We asked the question through our editorial column and chapels appeared almost immediately. We said, "Perhaps we had something to do with bringing them back." We sat back and looked satisfied. Soon we discovered we were getting two chapels when we had asked for one. Now we find that we have two chapels, freshman assembly for women, and the Pep Club, which is really a chapel devoted to athletics. Like poor King Midas whose touch turned everything to gold, our touch has given us more chapels than we can use, and we are hearing the old cry, "Sorority goats are the only people who go to the regular assemblies." Really, it embarrasses us, and we wonder if the persons in charge of the chapels are not a bit embarrassed, too.

ATTENTION, GIRLS!

We do not know why, but hockey does not have the interest of the girls of the school as does football, and it is equally true that hockey has its points, in fact a great number of them. Our team this year has been very successful and has met with but one defeat, and that at the hands of Swarthmore, one of the most powerful teams in the country. Although we have a successful team and an interesting game to watch, we find no spectators. We understand that The Hatchet reporter is the only non-participant present.

Wednesday a game between George Washington and William and Mary will be played on the Ellipse.

We ask every girl in the University "What are you going to do about it?"

Only the flippant will answer: "Nothing."

POTENTIAL PROFS

No. 5—Caroline Esther Hill

Diplomacy, either inherited or otherwise acquired, is the chief claim to fame which is possessed by Miss Caroline Esther, two-year-old daughter of Dr. Charles E. Hill, Professor of Political Science.

Miss Caroline Esther scorns all attempts on the part of her father to teach her anything concerning domestic diplomacy, where she excels. Right now the blonde little miss is much more disturbed about getting things to eat by devious methods, than she is by all the political science and international law which her father might teach her. Indeed, Miss Caroline Esther knows a thing or two about law herself, or at least has had some experience in "laying down the law" to the older members of the family.

Her plans for the future are rather hazy at present, for she is much more interested in the next meal than in college education or the lack of it. However, Miss Caroline Esther has three older sisters who are seeking to uphold the name of the family along educational lines.

Jane E. Hill, aged 15, is her oldest sister, and is a sophomore at Central High School. Annie, three years younger than Jane, is completing the eighth grade at Junior High School, and Mary, who is eight, is studying in the third grade this year.

Meanwhile, the youngest of the Hill family, leaves erudition to others, and diplomatically inquires, "Daddy, may I have a piece of cake?"

Put your pipe on
P.A.

WHAT you get out of a pipe depends on what you feed it. Millions of contented jimmy-pipers will tell you that Prince Albert commands a pipe to stand and deliver. You suspect you are in for some grand pipe-sessions the minute you get a whiff of P.A.'s aroma.

The first pipe-load confirms your suspicions. What a smoke, Fellows! Remember when you asked for the last dance and she said "You've had it"? P. A. is cool, like that. And sweet as knowing that she didn't really mean it.

Sweet and mellow and mild and long-burning.

Put your pipe on P. A. You can hit it up to your heart's content, knowing in advance that P. A. will not bite your tongue or parch your throat. That one quality alone gets P. A. into the best smoke-fraternities. And then think of all its other qualities!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

K. A. and S. A. E. Hold Lead in Frat Series

K. A. FIVE TAKES LEAGUE 2 RACE; S. A. E'S IN LEAD

K. A. Defeats Sigma Nu and Sigma Chi to Finish Race

ACACIA, LEAGUE 1, IS ON HEELS OF S. A. E., LEADER

S. P. E. Forfeits to Acacia and Theta Delta to S. A. E. as End Nears

The fourth week's play in the two inter-frat leagues ends with Kappa Alpha in undisputed possession of the championship of league two, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon leading league one with three victories and no defeats. They have one more game to play yet, that with Kappa Sigma on Monday night. If they lose, they will be tied with Acacia, now holding second place, and Kappa Sigma, in third place at present. If S. A. E. wins, the league one championship is theirs. Kappa Sigma last year beat S. A. E. to take the inter-fraternity title, so everything points to a good game.

Kappa Alpha has consistently played good basketball, leading the league most of the time and suffering only one defeat, that by T. U. O., very formidable dark horse of the league. For a while favored to win the league pennant, T. U. O. unexpectedly fell before Sigma Chi, who momentarily flashed championship form. Sigma Chi was in turn defeated by Phi Sigma Kappa, and Sigma Nu loomed as K. A.'s chief opponent, but was subsequently downed by K. A., who went on to the championship. Acacia has been the surprise of league one. Rallying from a defeat by S. A. E. on the first night's play, Acacia has laid the best of them low to win all their remaining games and take second place.

Sigma Phi Epsilon forfeited last Saturday night's game to Acacia, 2 to 0. Theta Delta Chi forfeited last Wednesday night's game to S. A. E., 2 to 0.

Kappa Alpha Trims Sigma Chi
Kappa Alpha last Saturday night clinched the championship of league two by taking a fast game from Sigma Chi, 25 to 13, before a good-sized crowd. Sigma Chi did not threaten at any time.

While registering seven points in the first quarter, the victors held Sigma Chi scoreless, presenting an air-tight defense that forced their opponents to confine themselves to long distance shooting. During the next period, the losers made three points on fouls, while K. A. was running its total up to 13. With the opening of the second half, Snow made Sigma Chi's first field goal. The K. A. defense loosened up somewhat, and by the end of that half, Sigma Chi had pulled their score up to 13, while K. A. finished with a total of 25.

Though trailing by a considerable margin, Sigma Chi fought doggedly all the way. Their goal shooting was poor, failing to even compare with that displayed on other occasions, notably against T. U. O.

Kappa Alpha played a steady game featured by Alexander's spectacular goal shooting, he having been high point man Saturday night with 15 points scored. Terry's play also was noteworthy. Snow, Sigma Chi center, proved to be the mainstay of his team, beside making three of their four field goals.

Alexander and Phillips, forwards; Haddox, center; Terry and Highsmith, guards; with substitutes Marshall and Davis, made up the victorious Kappa Alpha team. Sigma Chi colors were worn by Anderson and McIntosh, forwards; Snow, center; Smith and Reilly, guards; and Sickler and Baum, substitutes.

K. A. Beats Sigma Nu
Kappa Alpha last Wednesday night assumed undisputed leadership of league two by virtue of 28 to 23 victory over Sigma Nu their chief rivals, in a spirited hard-fought contest before the largest crowd of the current series.

Alexander, K. A., center, and Hill, Sigma Nu, forward, played prominent parts, vying with each other in long shots. With the score tied just before the end of the first half, Hill made a goal from mid court to give his team a two point lead for that half. In the final period, Alexander made a goal from the right side of mid-court, that matched Hill's effort. Although very bitterly contested, the game was cleanly played, not a man on either side being put out on fouls.

Sigma Nu drew first blood when McCormack made a goal from the right of the basket. At the end of the quarter, the score was eight to six in their favor. Kappa Alpha made all of her points in this period on foul goals by Phillips and Highsmith. Sigma Nu maintained a lead through the half, but at the end of the third quarter, Kappa Alpha was leading, 19 to 14. Scoring was more frequent in the final period, the game ending with the count 28 to 23 in favor of K. A.

Phi Sigs Win Over Sigma Chi
K. A. was forced to go through the game without the services of Haddox, regular center, who received a bad cut over the eye in a practice game. Phillips and Terry, forwards; Alexander, center, and Highsmith and Davis guards, made up the winning combination, while Sigma Nu lined up with Rangley and Hill, forwards; McCormack, center; Weigle and Lunding, guards, and Snyder, substitute left forward.

It took five periods for Phi Sigma Kappa to beat Sigma Chi, 26 to 25, on Monday the fourteenth at the University gym. A large and noisy crowd witnessed Sigma Chi's unexpected defeat.

At the end of the usual four periods the score was tied, 23 to 23. Soon after the opening of the extra period, McClellan, substitute Phi Sigma Kappa center, dropped the ball in the basket to give his team a two-point lead. Almost immediately thereafter, Funk, substituted Sigma Chi forward, again tied the score with a goal made from right under the basket. Then Smoot broke the tie and gave the Phi Sigs the game by making a foul goal with but a minute and a half to play.

The Sigma Kappa scored first, and led Sigma Chi, 4 to 1, at the end of the first quarter, but Sigma Chi took the lead in the next period, and held it until the end of the third when the score was 17 to 14 in their favor. In the fourth quarter, goals by Smoot, McClellan and Thacker brought the victors up to a tie with Sigma Chi, who seemed to have been weakened by substitutions.

Smoot's work for the visitors was largely responsible for his team's success. Playing a steady, clean game throughout, he led his team in points scored, and put up a splendid defensive game. McClellan and Thacker also played well. Snow, McIntosh and Anderson did most of the Sigma Chi scoring, while Smith excelled on the defensive.

The winners were represented by Smoot and Gary, forwards; Toal, center; Thacker and Grey, guards, and substitute McClellan. Anderson and McIntosh, forwards; Snow, center; Smith and Reilly, guards; Sickler and Funk, substitutes, represented Sigma Chi.

Acacia Beats Kappa Sigma
Displaying the same form shown when they overwhelmed Theta Delta Chi, Acacia's strong five conquered Kappa Sigma, 24 to 17, on the night of Monday the fourteenth.

Kappa Sigma, once favored to win the championship of league one, was unable to consistently penetrate the sturdy Acacia defense, and had difficulty making goals when it did. The winners made most of their points from foul goals, making good 14 out of 24, whereas their opponents made but three out of 15. Acacia led from start to finish and their lead was never seriously threatened.

Motyka and Elsberry were instrumental in Acacia's victory. The former, very husky center, proved a tower of strength on the defense, as well as scoring two of his team's five field goals. Elsberry displayed a deadly eye when it came to foul goal shooting. He made good seven out of ten chances, and made one field goal. The Kappa Sigma team was seriously handicapped by a lack of substitutes, playing half the last quarter with but four men on the court. Canney and Robertson both played an excellent game for the losers.

The Acacia team was composed of Spangler and Elsberry, forwards; Motyka, center; La Font and Rath-sack, guards; Brown and Blackman substitutes. The Kappa Sigma team was composed of Canney and Robertson, forwards; Popham, center; Alewine and Scott, guards; Russell, Bagler, Reminger and Cox, substitutes.

HOLIDAY GAMES GROW POPULAR

OBERLIN, Ohio (IP).—Friday, November 11, saw 118 important football teams taking advantage of the Armistice Day holiday to play football games, instead of waiting until Saturday afternoon as usual. Most of these games were played in the South and West.

Thanksgiving Day apparently is again becoming a popular time for football contests. This Thanksgiving Day will find 228 teams going into action, in half that many games.

The following Saturday, but fifteen games will be played. On Saturday, December 3 nine football contests will be played, three will take place on December 10, and on December 17, just two teams will line up against each other, Oglethorpe and Loyola, at Atlanta. The last game of the season will be played on New Year's day at the Tournament of the Roses between Stanford and probably Georgia, depending somewhat on which team takes the Southern conference championship.

SWARTHMORE TAKES FAST HOCKEY MATCH

First Game Lost by Colonial Girls Goes to Powerful Philadelphia Team

Swarthmore defeated the G. W. hockey team by a score of 14-0 at Swarthmore on Saturday morning.

The game was a much faster and closer one than the score indicates. The Swarthmore girls were forced to use all the hockey they knew. The G. W. backs played a marvelous defensive game, although the Swarthmore goal was not often threatened. Louise Omwake, goal guard, was the star of the game. The ball stayed past the G. W. 25-yard line most of the time, and Louise never missed an opportunity to kick or hit the ball. Jenny Turnbull, center half-back, ran a close second for first honors by playing a fast, consistent game.

NON-SCOUTING PACT

EASTON, Pa. (IP).—A non-scouting pact in football has been entered into by Lafayette College with Lehigh University and Penn State College, both ancient gridiron opponents.

Coach McCracken announced the closing of the agreement and said that he hoped in time to have such agreements made with all of Lafayette's rivals.

BEATS WIFE WITH WOOD LEG

CHICAGO, Ill. (IP).—When the future Mrs. Clarence Johnson met Mr. Clarence Johnson at a college dance, he was so splendid a dancer that she fell in love with him and married him.

Things went on nicely until she angered him one day, and he took off a wooden leg she didn't know he had, and beat her with it.

"I never dreamed he had a wooden leg," she explained to the judge from whom she obtained a divorce, "but when he took it off and beat me with it, I couldn't help but notice it."

Barnyard Golf Now Ranked As Competitive Sport; Prize To Be Given By Jewelers

Horseshoe pitching has made the hazardous journey from barnyard to college campus and now seems on the road to even greater interest. Recent developments have indicated without a doubt the general furor created by the sport. Interest will be furthered by dignified competition.

In other words, we are going to have a contest, with a prize to the winner, and all other embellishments. It seems that Pearson and Crain, prominent jewelers of the city, heard of the latest student activity, and thought it would be a good idea to promote a regular contest. In doing so, they have offered as a prize a pair of horseshoe-shaped cuff links. These are being made especially for the occasion.

While there have not been any definite plans formulated or any date set, it is supposed that the contest will be held under student management. It is to be a formal affair, with an umpire to pass on concentrated competition.

It remains to be seen whether the contest will attract as many contenders for the crown as there are devotees of the sport. However, the future seems quite rosy, and everything points to a successful event.

G. W. GIRLS' SOCCER TEAM MUST DELAY PRACTICE

Ellipse Needed for Hockey Until After Thanksgiving

The girls' soccer team will not begin to practice in earnest until after the last hockey game of the season, which will be after Thanksgiving.

This is due to the fact that on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, the only times convenient for soccer practice, the Ellipse is used by the hockey team. Girls' soccer is a new sport at George Washington, and is to be coached by Miss Davis. It has not been organized with the idea of making it a major sport, but solely for the purpose of inter-class games.

The work of the librarian, according to the president, has become a "guide to unknown territories."

RIFLE SQUAD HOLDING INTRA-SCHOOL MATCH

N. R. A. Targets are Used in Matches in Range; Ten Men Make Good Scores

The men's varsity rifle squad is now occupied with the shooting of intra-school matches. This means that the first ten ranking men of the varsity squad are shooting against each other.

The matches are being shot under the same conditions as those which govern the shooting of the National Rifle Association. Interscholastic Matches, Ten record shots are fired in each position; standing, kneeling and prone. The new type targets are being used in these matches.

Despite the fact that these new targets are of a smaller size than those used formerly, some of the first string men have been turning in scores fully as good as those made on the large size targets. The men shooting in this intra-school match are: Leighey, Riley, Campbell, Parsons, Schricker, Lane, Radue, Prentiss and Isham.

Due to the fact that such good scores have been turned in on the smaller size targets, excellent results are expected in the matches to be shot off in the near future.

The contest is to close on March 1, 1928.

G. W. COURT FIVE TO TOUR VIRGINIA

Trip Through Virginia to Occupy Four Days; Will Play William and Mary

FIRST HOME GAME DEC. 21

The Crummen to Engage Bridge-water in Inaugural Clash in G. W. Gym

With basketball about to take a favored position in the limelight comes the news that the 1927-28 court schedule has almost been completed.

Among other games arranged for the George Washington five is a three-game series which is to occupy a four-day tour through Virginia, at which time Hampden-Sidney, Medical College of Virginia, and William and Mary will be engaged on successive nights, January 12, 13, and 14, respectively.

Basketball activity will be formally inaugurated in the George Washington Gymnasium on December 21. Bridge-water College will be the Crummen's foe for the evening.

The schedule now contains the names of University of Baltimore, Roanoke College, Wake-Forest, St. Bonaventure College, Guilford College, Dickinson College, University of Virginia, Catholic University, American University, and Gallaudet. Several pending engagements will be finally settled within a few days.

Practice November 28

On Monday, November 28, and every Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday thereafter, all athletes with varsity basketball ambitions will be seen making their way to the Gymnasium with their basketball uniforms tucked safely under their arm. At the Gymnasium Coach Crum, who will be in full charge of basketball this year, will put the men through rigid paces in an endeavor to turn out a winning five.

In the persons of Sapp, Allhouse, Perry, Goodson, and Carey, Coach Crum will have five regular varsity men from last year's team with which to work. Each one of these men has in the past provided the George Washington students and many sport-lovers of the city with many thrills. This year they will be counted upon to produce more of the thrills which make basketball the most popular winter sport of America.

Bud Barrows, member of last year's squad, will be lost to the team for the most part of the season because of a broken shoulder sustained in a recent football scrimmage.

It is expected that fully fifty candidates will be on hand for the first practice on November 28. Among the candidates for the team will be a great number of the outstanding interfraternity league tossers.

STUDENT LEARNS TO FLY IN 5 1-2 HOURS—IS RECORD

CINCINNATI, Ohio (IP)—Frank Shelton, Jr., student at the University of Cincinnati has broken the record for time taken to learn to fly.

An airplane company in conjunction with the University recently held a contest, the winner of which was to receive free flying lessons from the company. Shelton was runner-up in the contest, but received the opportunity when the winner was declared ineligible because he could not pass the necessary physical examination. Shelton never had been in an airplane before, but it took him just five hours and 34 minutes to learn to fly by himself. He thus broke the record established recently by a mechanic at Dayton. On the last trip of the afternoon, just as it was getting dark, the Cincinnati student took the plane up by himself, landing in perfect form.

The lessons were given him, by use of the dual control method—that is, the regular pilot drives the machine with one set of levers, while the student uses another set, copying the actions of the pilot.

Shelton now hopes to earn a regular pilot's license.

NEW GRADING SYSTEM

A new system of grading went into effect in summer school this year and is to be used regularly at George Washington.

The numerical values of the grades have been lowered to: A, 90-100 per cent; B, 80-89 per cent; C, 70-79 per cent; D, 60-69 per cent; and E and F, below 60 per cent.

CHI OMEGA PLASTERS A. D. PI IN OPENING TILT

First Game of Inter-Sorority Court Series Goes to Chi O by 26-0 Score

The first game of the Inter-Sorority basketball tournament was played off when Chi Omega met and defeated Alpha Delta Pi, 26-0, on the Gym floor last Thursday night.

The teams took the floor after a small amount of practice, and in spite of that, Chi Omega flashed through to a decisive victory over their opponents with a score of 26-0.

Of the total twenty-six points won for the Chi O's, Sally Huges made 12 in the first half and 8 in the second half, while Jane Blackstone totalled 8 points.

The game was especially notable for the large number of fouls made; one personal being scored against Chi Omega, and five technicals and a personal against Alpha Delta Pi.

The wet weather prevented the crowds from assembling, but the cheering sections were not to be ignored. At least, they made themselves noticed. This victory puts Chi Omega in line to play in the semi-final game on December 1.

The line-up was as follows:

Chi O A. D. P.
S. Huges R. F. M. Steele
J. Blackstone L. F. M. Rees
J. Denning C. G. D. Albert
M. Hoskins S. C. C. Hobbs
B. Brandenburg R. G. H. Bach
M. Adams L. G. G. G. Hurd

The game was refereed by Miss Davis; score was kept by Winnie Faunce, and Jennie Turnbull acted as timekeeper. In the second half, Virginia Cooper was substituted at left forward to take the place of Jane Blackstone.

G. W. AND C. U. READY FOR ANNUAL BATTLE

University have played seven, registering wins over Mt. St. Mary's, Loyola, and St. Johns. The Cards were defeated by William and Mary, Holy Cross, Marines, and St. Xavier. C. U. has scored only 96 points to a total of 100 for their opponents.

Catholic University opened its season, September 24, against William and Mary at Williamsburg, Va., to whom they bowed by the score of 12 to 0. Ray Foley was the Cardinal's big gun, while Harvey accounted for good gains through the line.

While George Washington was defeating City College of New York, at New York, to a tune of 19 to 6, on October 1, C. U. turned back Mt. St. Mary's at Washington by the score of 13 to 6. Foley again accounted for big gains by his uncanny passing. Malevich, Schmidt, and Hlener played a spectacular brand of football to bring the downfall of Mt. St. Mary's.

C. U. Passes Well

Catholic U. had a hard time defeating Loyola at Baltimore, October 8, while at the same time G. W. was snowed under American University, 27 to 0, in a game at Washington. Catholic University's dazzling passing attack, said to be the best ever seen at Baltimore, enabled them to win in the final period.

The Colonials turned in a 6 to 0 win over Rutgers at New Brunswick, October 15, while St. Johns of Brooklyn was being conquered by the Cardinals at Washington. Catholic University's passing attack was again responsible for a 13 to 0 victory. Foley passed to Schmidt, Long and Harvey for many substantial gains.

On October 22 the Cardinals suffered a defeat, 23 to 8, at the hands of Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass., while the Colonials won a glorious 13 to 0 victory over Fordham at Washington.

The following Saturday, October 29, George Washington extended its winning streak to five consecutive wins by defeating Ursinus by a 7 to 0 score in the first game ever to be played on the new Ursinus athletic field at Collegeville, Pa. Catholic University was idle.

G. W. Lost to Penn State

November 5 was a sad day for both rival teams. G. W. lost, but not without grace, to Penn State, 13 to 0, at State College, Pa. The Marines defeated the Cardinals to the tune of 33 to 13.

St. Vincent proved no match for the Colonials, November 12, as the 40 to 19 score would indicate. C. U. was unable to hit a winning stride when they played St. Xavier at Cincinnati, who defeated them by a 26 to 18 count.

Last Saturday the Colonials had an easy time defeating Concord State College at Welch, West Virginia, to the tune of 33 to 0. Coach Jack McAuliffe, Brookland mentor, thought it wise to continue pointing his charges for their "big" game against George Washington. For this reason the Cardinals remained idle.

Visitors Entering City as Tornado Leaves, See Fraternity Life, Learn of "Blind Dates," "Cutting in," and Other American Pastimes During Brief Stay in Capital

George Washington's Interfraternity Council played hosts to the British Debating team during its stay here for the debate with G. W.'s team last week.

Amidst the downpour of rain and cyclone which visited the city, providing as near as possible a true "blimey" day for the Islanders, they were greeted at the station by the committee from the council composed of George Von Dauchenhausen, Sherman Johnson and Don Iglehart.

T. U. O's Bunk Bilehart

The Theta Upsilon Omega brothers opened their doors to the shivering parliamentarians, when they enjoyed the hospitality of that fraternity while here.

After much discussion of possible "dates" and blind ones at that, which proved a novelty to the men from across the sea, they were escorted to the dance given in their honor by the Columbia Debating Society at the home of Mrs. Shorey. Tapping or "breaking" was soon explained to the distinguished guests who proceeded to make the most of the occasion.

The following morning the party visited the University, where they were introduced to President Marvin. The Capitol was given a thorough inspection, after which Representative Yates, of Illinois, entertained at luncheon at the Library of Congress.

Tour City

A tour of the city was made, many of the public buildings being visited, including the Monument which the British insisted on walking up much to the regret of the escort. Tea was partaken of at the Willard, and then a return to the T. U. O. house for preparation for the debate that evening.

Dinner was a gay occasion at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House with most of the chapter present as hosts. The team was then conducted to the G. W. gym for the big argument.

In spite of the many, and varied views offered by people in the audience after the debate, the victors were finally taken to the Kappa Alpha dance at the Indian Springs Country Club where they had a good time and met many of the fair co-eds. If we may take the words of our British guests they had "a most riotous time," which means in America, just a "hot trip."

Louisiana U. Ousts 8 For 300 Frosh Haircuts

Breaking Anti-Hazing Vows Causes Expulsion; 3 Grid Stars Go; More to Follow

Louisiana State University is making a hard fight to uphold its rules against hazing.

Eight students, including three star football players, have been expelled since the clipping of the hair of three hundred freshmen recently. A probe into violation of the school's anti-hazing pledge is being carried out by President T. W. Atkinson. He has indicated that still more students may be asked to leave for participating in the outrage.

The eight men dismissed were expelled on "definite information," furnished by other students; they entered formal protest that they were given no opportunity to answer charges. Rumors of a student strike in sympathy with the ostracized were discounted by President Atkinson. He expressed the belief that the student body in the main would aid the faculty in upholding discipline, based on the anti-hazing vow all entrants have been required to make since 1925.

"The student body could only make matters worse by attempting any form of action," said the football coach in seeking to discourage any demonstration.

HARVARD CLUB IS SCORED

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (IP)—Recent public initiations of the Hasty Pudding Institute of 1770 Club of Harvard College met with violent disapproval on the part of the undergraduate body, the Harvard Crimson. The Crimson said, in part:

"If the spectacle afforded by these exhibitions is to be regarded as typical of the organization's attitude and sense of humor, then one can only sigh for the return of a more puritanical regime. That these displays have any claim to respectability there can be no question: They are disgusting, vulgar—they are nauseating."

"Never, not even in the cheapest of cheap vaudeville houses has the general public in and around Harvard Square and the university public been offended with such common antics, more suitable to moratoria than a supposedly intelligent community."

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (IP)—Seniors at Vassar College are raising a thousand dollars for equipping a smoking room for the women students.

greatly handicapped by lack of reserve material having eleven excellent men on the regular team and only one or two men for relief work on the line and in the backfield.

C. U. Reserves Good

Catholic University, in addition to their regular starting line-up, has Champa, Murphy, and Sullivan for the backfield, and Gerth, Zeno, and Raiche for the line. Any one of the six men mentioned above are able to substitute without weakening the team a particle.

Taking comparative scores into consideration, the Colonials should emerge victorious by three touchdowns but when the Colonials and the Cardinals meet one might as well throw all hope to the winds. However, let a few scores be considered. Holy Cross defeated Fordham, 7 to 2; George Washington defeated Fordham, 13 to 0. By the use of simple addition and subtraction G. W. would appear to hold an eight point advantage over Holy Cross. Holy Cross defeated Catholic University, 23 to 8, which would give Holy Cross a 15-point lead over the Cardinals, therefore, since Holy Cross holds a 15-point advantage over C. U. and the Colonials lead Holy Cross by eight points, George Washington should be better by 23 points than their foe, Catholic University.

Having a statistical advantage or not, the Crummen will have to be on their toes every minute of the game. The Cardinals will be a continuous threat with Ray Foley's uncanny passing to his teammates who are well schooled in the art of spearing forwards.

Students will not be admitted on student activities cards. Admission will be $1.

Tickets are on sale now, and may be obtained at the gymnasium office, at the Cashier's Office in Building 1, or at Spalding's, 1336 G St. N. W.

Missouri Valley Athletic Conference To Disband

Six Leading Institutions Withdraw From Compact; Was First Organized in 1907

LAWRENCE, Kans. (By Intercollegiate Press and Daily Kansan.)—The withdrawal of the six leading institutions of the Missouri Valley conference has brought to an end one of the leading athletic organizations of the middle-west. The valley has played an important part in athletics and has given a good account of itself in all intercollegiate contests.

A preliminary meeting for the organization of an athletic conference was held January 12, 1907. The organization was perfected in February of the same year, with Washington University, and the Universities of Kansas, Missouri, and Iowa as the first members.

In 1908 Iowa State, Colorado, Drake and Oklahoma became members. Still later Nebraska joined the organization. In May, 1911, Iowa withdrew to become a member of the Western Conference.

Kansas State Agricultural college became a member in 1909, Grinnell in 1918, and the University of Oklahoma in 1919. The next year Oklahoma took the conference championship. Oklahoma A. and M. became a member in 1925 and the next year that school took the conference championship.

Notice was served on September 24 of this year by Nebraska, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, the Kansas Aggies and Iowa State, that with the end of the present school year they would withdraw from the conference. They will form a new conference.

Two hundred and eighty football games have been played in conference competition, only fifteen of which resulted in ties.

CO-ED TO REPLACE COW AS OHIO STATE BEAUTY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (IP)—Crooked work and the selection of a cow for the beauty queen of the campus will not take place this year at Ohio State University, if authorities can help it.

Each year for the homecoming celebration, the campus has elected a co-ed as beauty queen. Last year the election returns were thrown out because of brooked politics, and a cow, Maude Ormsby, of the College of Agriculture, was accorded the honor and crowned in the stadium. This year a committee of judges instead of the entire campus will select the beauty queen, and she will be a human, co-ed student, they say.

CANADIAN HOCKEY WILL SUFFER FROM NEW RULE

MONTREAL, Quebec (IP)—As a result of a new athletic conference ruling, it is thought that McGill University will this year be without the hockey team, traditional at all Canadian institutions.

The rule is one which allows a student to go out for only one major sport in a year, and since most of the capable ice hockey players at McGill are out for Rugby this year, the break up of the hockey team is threatened.

Since the same rule has had the same effect at Queen's and Toronto universities, it is hoped that second teams from each institution may be put on the courts this year to save the time-honored sport from an untimely death.

RABBIT'S FOOT IS TROPHY

DELAWARE, Ohio (IP)—A rabbit's foot encased in a glass sheath was the prize won by Ohio Wesleyan University when the Methodists defeated the Denison squad in their annual gridiron contest here last week.

The rabbit's foot is a matter of tradition. Back in 1908 when Denison was leading 4 to 0, the headgear of the Denison captain was knocked off and out rolled the rabbit's foot. A Wesleyan man grabbed it, and the tide turned in Wesleyan's favor. Ever since that time the good luck token had rested in Wesleyan's trophy cabinet. This year that institution decided to put the foot in circulation, the winner of the Wesleyan-Denison game becoming the owner for a year. It still remains in Wesleyan's cabinet.

DARKNESS PREVENTS FINAL TENNIS MATCH

Championship Still Undetermined After Two Sets Between Omwake and Davis

An attempt to play off the women's final tennis match between Louise Omwake and Miriam Davis was made on Tuesday last week, but was forestalled by darkness after only two sets had been played.

The first set was won by Miriam Davis, 6-4. The second set was a battle from beginning to end, Louise Omwake coming out victor by 10-6. This last set was so much longer than had been expected that by the end of the set it was too dark for more playing, and with the decision still undetermined, the contestants for the women's tennis championship were forced to retire from the court. The entire match will have to be played over in fairness to the players.

ful 40-yard pass from Sapp and ran 8 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was awarded to George Washington when Concord was called off side.

The quarter ended with the ball in G. W.'s grasp on their own 45-yard line.

Second Quarter
After receiving the kick-off the Colonials at once started a passing game which netted them three consecutive first downs. The Concord Lions held well for a moment and G. W. was forced to kick. Concord returned the punt when they found the going very difficult.

George Washington made an uninterrupted march to the opposing 10-yard line with Stehman smashing through the Concord line for numerous first downs. A moment after a lateral pass had failed, Carey received another pass back of the Lions' goal line for the second touchdown. Lopepman was the heaver of this pass, Sapp having been replaced by Copeland. The quarter ended with George Washington about to kick-off to Concord.

Third Quarter
The most sensational run of the entire game was made by Stehman when Concord kicked off to open the second half. Stehman with beautiful interference ran the kick-off to Concord's 15-yard line where he sidestepped the last man between him and the goal, however, a protruding pitcher's box stopped the flashy full-back before he got across the final chalk stripe.

Stehman failed to gain through the line but Sanders made a few yards around the end. Carey again was up to his old tricks and snatched another pass for the third six-pointer. Concord again took the kick-off and punted after they failed to gain the required number of yards. The ball remained in the center of the field until the period ended. Carey made a spectacular one-handed catch of pass as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

After receiving the kick-off Stehman tore off two first-downs through left tackle. On the next play Sanders missed a long pass far down along the sidelines, but on the next play Carey grabbed a pass for a short gain. Sanders threatened the Concord goal but was nailed with but three yards to go. The Lions took the ball on downs after the Colonials were heavily penalized.

Failing to gain, Concord punted to G. W.'s 40-yard line. The Colonials returned the punt after working a lateral pass for a short gain. At this point all of the George Washington substitutes were rushed into the fray. Carey received a short pass, and Stehman took a lateral pass from Lopepman for a first down.

G. W. advanced the ball to Concord's 20-yard line by the use of straight line plays. Carey then took a 15-yard pass from Lopepman for the Colonials' fifth touchdown.

The Crummen kicked off to the Lions, who returned the kick to their 45-yard line. It was again George Washington's ball in mid-field when the boys from Athens failed to gain ground. Boring through tackle and working a beautiful lateral pass to perfection, G. W. brought the ball to Concord's 10-yard line. With the ball in this position Stehman slipped around left end for the final touchdown.

George Washington's kick-off was poor and Concord State held the ball in mid-field when the whistle sounded announcing the end of the game.

CARDINALS LEAD G. W. U. IN WINS

Eight Clashes With C. U. Since Resuming Athletic Relations In 1920

C. U. VICTORS FIVE TIMES

Colonials Expect to Make Matter of Victories More Nearly Even Tomorrow

When the Colonials line up tomorrow against the Cardinals of Catholic University they will be determined to avenge last year's defeat in an effort to make the matter of games won and lost more nearly balance.

Since resuming athletic relations in 1920, C. U. has won five of seven games played.

In the first encounter C. U. was the victor by a 13 to 0 score. The following year the Cards repeated their performance by defeating the Colonials 19 to 7.

In 1922 two long years of defeat by Catholic University was wiped out in one short hour of victory. In this game George Washington was the winner by a 14 to 7 score. O'Keefe, Murphy and Ptak were largely responsible for the victory.

Colonials Won in 1924

In 1923 the Colonials were again humbled by a 14 to 0 score. George Washington, however, was in striking distance of the C. U. goal on several occasions.

After the C. U.-G. W. game in 1924 a newspaper headline appeared which read, "D. Wagner shines in making scores as C. U. goes down in defeat." It was once more G. W.'s time to celebrate; the fifteen thousand sport-lovers that taxed the Brookland Stadium that day saw the George Washington war horses leave the field of battle with the glory of a 14 to 0 victory.

Catholic University scored 20 to 0, and 17 to 9 victories in 1925 and 1926, respectively.

What has gone before is past; 1927 is another year. The summary of previous games follows:

	G. W. U. C. U.
1920	0 13
1921	7 19
1922	14 7
1923	0 27
1924	14 0
1925	0 20
1926	9 17
Totals	44 103

ponents, both offensively and defensively.

Six regulars of the freshman team were not able to start, due to an unfortunate series of injuries. This forced Coach Avis to use many of his reserves, who performed quite as creditably as the men whose places they had taken.

The freshmen are now pointing for their final game with Catholic University freshmen on Thanksgiving morning, when they hope to maintain their perfect record for the season.

This clash will be held in the morning about ten o'clock, and not as a preliminary game to the varsity fray. Student athletic tickets will admit.

Coach Avis is counting on all of his regulars to start in this final game of the season, and is taking no chances to insure this being the fifth straight victory for his undefeated yearlings who have set a record for freshmen elevens of the future.

SOVIET RUSSIA IS SUBJECT OF TALK

Father Walsh, of Georgetown U., Addresses Meeting of History Club

HEADED FAMINE WORK

Six Officers Elected at Meeting to Pilot History Club for Coming Year

A picture of Soviet Russia, painted by Father Walsh, Regent of the Georgetown University Foreign Service School, was given before the History Club, at the second monthly meeting of the club held on Tuesday evening, November 15, in Corcoran Hall.

Father Walsh, who had consented to address the club at the invitation of its president, A. L. Russell, spent most of the years 1922 and 1923, in famine relief work in Russia, during which time he supervised the distribution of food and clothing to from 40,000 to 100,000 people daily. He made the statement that more than 15,000,000 people faced starvation at that time.

In pursuance of his subject, "Conditions in Soviet Russia," the speaker related tales of horror: Men, women and children, to the number of nearly two million, were ruthlessly murdered by the revolutionists during and succeeding the year 1917, he said. The French Revolution, said Father Walsh, is insignificant in comparison with the revolution in Russia, in the destruction of life and property.

Scores Communism

He compared the motives of the founders of the United States to those who attempted the reorganization of Russia in that both wished to bring about a change in government for the benefit of the people, but our forefathers simply reallocated sovereignty from George III to the people of the United States and congress assembled whereas in Russia the attempt has been made to overturn the whole social structure.

Communism is more than a national policy; it is a religion, it was stated, based on the economic theories of Karl Marx. Labor is considered the basis of all economic wealth and the price of an article beyond the labor cost is capitalistic exploitation and therefore abhorrent to Communists.

The most startling statements made were those with respect to the Soviet constitution, in which it is predicted that a world state of Communism will be founded, ruled by the laborers of all nations, with its capital at Moscow.

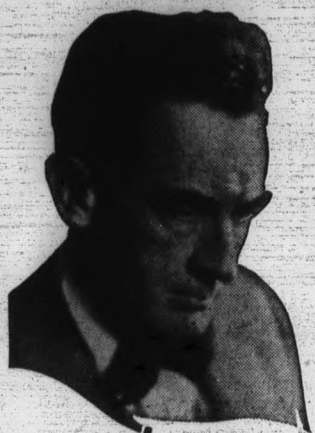

Religion Stifled, He Says

Certain other provisions forbid parents to give their children any religious or other education, under possible penalty of death, children being considered the property of the state and can receive only such education as the state prescribes in its own schools. Every attempt has been made to stamp out religion as was evidenced by the burning of an effigy, labeled "God" on Christmas day of 1922, and the killing and exiling of a number of priests, the speaker stated.

"The State Department of the United States is entirely justified in refusing to recognize Soviet Russia so long as such an impossible, inhuman and un-Christian program is pursued," it was declared.

At the close of the address the club held a business meeting and election of officers for the new year. The new officers are: A. L. Russell, president; Elsie E. Green, vice-president; W. C. Draper, recording secretary; Eleanor Appich, Publicity Secretary; J. H. Mason, Corresponding Secretary; J. L. O'Connor, Treasurer.

PURDUE POSSESSOR OF SECOND RED GRANGE, 19

Young Texas Sophomore Starts Entire Football World in Purdue-Harvard Game

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (IP).—Over in this part of the country they are beginning to think that the Big Ten has another Red Grange. Purdue, however, and not Illinois is the honored institution this time.

His name is W. Ralph Welch. He is a 19-year-old sophomore from down Texas way, and has played one game of college football, the result of that game being, W. Ralph Welch, 19—Harvard, 0.

The story is a short one—so far. Purdue's All-American captain, Chester "Cotton" Wilcox injured his leg in practice last week. Purdue stopped betting on the Harvard game immediately. But there was a sophomore sub to be reckoned with. Better to say that there was a wildman to be reckoned with, for that was what young Welch proved himself to be.

In the words of an occupant of the press box, here is what happened: "More than 30,000 people sat thunderstricken at the strange spectacle of one gangling young licking an entire football club, but that is exactly what happened. Of course he received some modicum of assistance from ten husky teammates, but it was Welch's running, Welch's kicking and Welch's spectacular passing that featured almost every play of the entire game.

Welch Plays Whole Team

"It was Welch who created the scoring opportunities and Welch who cashed in on them. It was Welch who ran the ends and slanted the tackles and Welch who crashed through the center of the line. It was Welch who flipped the forwards and who caught the forwards. It was Welch who kicked off, and punted and who ran back punts. It was Welch who made crashing tackles and who ran interference.

"It was Welch who contributed two Purdue touchdowns in person and threw the pass that gave them their third. It was Welch who only missed two more by the skin of his heels. Welch did everything that could possibly be done on a football field except drown himself in the waterbucket."

And when the students here at Purdue got through listening to the game over the radio and seeing it on the gridgraph, those who had not yet gone "nuts" went downtown and tore up the city. For had not Purdue done two memorable feats?—made itself the first Western conference eleven to trim Fair Harvard in New England territory, and brought to light footballdom's second Red Grange.

And should Cotton Wilcox recover his game leg, Purdue wants it to be mentioned that Michigan and Minnesota and Ohio State and Northwestern and the whole gang of Big Ten football teams just watch their step!

Local Chapter Host At Sigma Kappa Conclave

1928 Convention of Sorority to be Held in Washington, June 25, 26 and 27

Zeta Chapter and the Washington Alumnae branch of Sigma Kappa will act as hostesses to the convention of the Sigma Kappa Sorority to be held in Washington, June 25, 26 and 27, 1928.

Irene Pistorio, George Washington graduate and active worker in the Columbian Women Society, is chairman of the convention committee. Five hundred people are expected from active and alumnae chapters, and according to the local chapter, this will be the largest convention in the history of the sorority.

Definite contracts and arrangements have not been completed as yet but the George Washington chapter is planning a full program for their visiting sisters. Plans for a large house party are being made to be held at the close of the convention.

Two of the original founders of the sorority will be in attendance at the 1928 convention.

James Montgomery Flagg To Criticise Good Drawings Submitted by G. W. Students

James Montgomery Flagg, dean of American illustrators, has consented to criticize and make personal comments to artists who submit drawings of exceptional merit to George Washington U. publications and College Humor in their $2,000 art contest. For more than 37 years Flagg's illustrations have appeared in the leading magazines in America. His comments and criticisms, impossible to be obtained in any other way, should be invaluable to the fortunate artists.

Undergraduate artists may submit as many drawings as desired—on any subject—in black and white, before January 15th. Two other famous artists, Arthur William Brown and Gaar Williams, will decide with Flagg on the winning eighty-one drawings.

Three original drawings by these three artists will be presented to the comic magazines or publications on whose staffs the grand prize winners are regular contributors.

These drawings must be submitted to Joe D. Walstrom, editor of the Hatchet. All sketches may be left at The Hatchet Office.

GERMAN TRANSLATION MADE OF GRIGGS BOOK

The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes Translated by Max Mueller

"The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes," a book written by Dr. Griggs of the Botanical Department of George Washington, has recently been translated into German.

The translator was Max Mueller, who gave several talks at George Washington a few years ago on philosophical subjects, among which was one entitled "Mechanism and Vitalism." During his visit in Washington he became very much interested in Dr. Griggs' work and asked permission to translate his book into German.

"The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" is the story of Dr. Griggs' exploration and research in Alaska, in the region most vitally affected by the eruption of Mount Katmai in 1912, when that mountain blew up about six and a quarter cubic miles of ash and lava and spread it over the landscape to a distance of almost 1,500 miles.

FIVE COLLEGES BOLT CONCLAVE

Rift Looms in Women's Intercollegiate Association For Student Government

FORM NEW ORGANIZATION

Smith, Vassar, Wellesley, Bryn Mawr, Will Work Out Their Salvation Alone

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (IP).—Five of the largest women's colleges in the country severed their connections with the Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government at the convention of that group last week at Smith college here.

The withdrawing colleges are Smith, Vassar, Wellesley, Bryn Mawr and Mt. Holyoke.

In tendering the resignation of the group, Martha Biehle, of Wellesley, explained:

"This group of five colleges has decided that too much money and energy is spent on conferences in Student Government, which overlap each other and have the same aims. The five colleges have therefore decided to support only two conferences in Student Government; one to be held in the spring and attended only by representatives of the five, and the other, the much larger conference of the National Student Federation. At the former the five will discuss their own peculiar problems, and at the larger conference they will meet the problems of the other colleges throughout the country. The five colleges would like, however, to send visiting delegates to the Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government, in order that they may keep in touch with the Association."

She resignation of the five institutions was accepted, and an invitation extended to them to send visiting delegates in the future.

Will Meet at Reserve

The College for Women of Western Reserve University, at Cleveland, Ohio, was selected as the meeting place of the conference next year, November, 1928. And as is customary, the president of that conference will be the delegate from Western Reserve. The vice-president will be the Ohio Wesleyan delegate, and the secretary, the Wooster delegate. The present delegate from Western Reserve, Anetta Gross, was elected graduate advisor of next year's conference.

Approximately sixty thousand college women were represented at this, the twentieth annual conference of the Association. Delegates were present from colleges as far East as Bates, in Maine, as far South as Florida State College for Women, and as far West as Mills College, in California.

In the opening address of the session, Miss Mary Wooley, president of Mt. Holyoke College, pointed out the difference between student government and college administration policy. "The most difficult problem today," she said, "is that of deciding what affects only the students without affecting the policy of the institution. Those who are responsible ought to understand that there is a realm affecting the life of the undergraduates where the majority vote ought to rule absolutely, and that there is a realm affecting the college where thought and judgment must be used. College in the larger sense means not only the student, but the faculty, the administration and the alumni as well."

The offering of criticism by students for the betterment of college teaching was advocated by Professor Sidney B. Fay, of the department of history of Smith College.

During the conference the delegates motored to Mt. Holyoke college for afternoon tea.

SOUTH TAKES LEAD IN COLLEGIATE FOOTBALL

East is Ahead of South and West in Sectional Victories Thus Far This Season

(By Intercollegiate Press.)

For the first time in the history of football, the championship aspiration is directed to the South. Georgia, you will remember, beat Yale. Yale beat both Princeton and the Army, Army, of course, beat Notre Dame, and Notre Dame tied Minnesota. Georgia, it happens, is the only team in the Southern conference which has neither been defeated nor tied, and unless something bad happens in the next few weeks, you will see Georgia proclaimed the football champions of the U. S. A.

It was scarcely 15 years ago that a national champion east of the Alleghenies or south of the Potomac was an unheard of event. Even Michigan couldn't do a thing against New England. The war changed things. Football championships began to drift westward, resting usually upon the shoulders of the Notre Dame Irishmen, or even to the Pacific Coast. And now the South is having its day.

It is well to note, however, that in the matter of sectional victories, the East still has the lead. The East has beat the West in nine games, and the West has defeated the East in Eight. The East has won from the South in 10 games, and the South has taken but 4 from the East. The West has won from the South in four events, while the South has conquered the West in not a single event. Thus we see that the East has won 19 sectional games, and lost 12, the West has taken 12 and lost 9, and the South has won but four and lost all of 14.

QUALITY—NOT QUANTITY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (IP).—"We should not be worried as to the number of students who are going to college, but more concerned as to the kind of work they do," declared president Lotus D. Coffman, president of the University of Minnesota. "A student who can not or will not work should not be allowed to stay."

G. W. STUDENT IS AMATEUR CHAMP

Norman Shoemaker Awarded D. C. Amateur Lightweight Boxing Title

TRAINED IN GYM CLASS

Titelholder Fights Four Bouts in One Evening to Win Decision; Continues School

Fighting through four hard bouts in one evening, Norman Shoemaker, G. W. sophomore, won the mythical amateur lightweight championship of the District of Columbia. After battling through three fights he was forced to fight an extra round in the final bout to win the decision.

Superior ability coupled with excellent preparation and good condition were the factors responsible for Shoemaker overcoming his opponents. The excellent physical condition maintained by this student is the result of class work in physical education given last year's freshmen. Continuing his daily workouts and receiving instruction in boxing, he soon made himself known in amateur fist circles of Washington.

His athletic ability is not entirely limited to boxing, as he excelled in the various intra-mural sports conducted in Gym class last year. He is the holder of the record in the broad jumping contests which were staged in the "backyard stadium" last spring. As a result of his hard work in Gym class, he was one of the few "A" grade students in last year's freshmen class.

Will Not Become Pro

Although it is rumored that Shoemaker has been questioned as to his desire as to entering professional ranks, he wishes it to be made known that his education is foremost in his mind and that his boxing is purely for the physical benefits derived therefrom. Earning a college diploma means much more in this young man's life than the winning of a championship belt in the fist realm where physical ability is sometimes higher than mental achievement. Making good grades, as he has, Norman should be able to represent G. W. next year in the amateur college bouts.

Dr. Paul Bartsch Reads Paper on Bird Habits

George Washington Students Attend Annual Meeting of American Ornithological Union

The forty-fifth states meeting of the American Ornithological Union was held at the New National Museum on November 15, 16 and 17. Numerous George Washington students interested in the study of bird-lore took advantage of this meeting, the first to be held in this city since 1920.

Representatives from the various states and countries read papers on the habits, location and experimental observation of birds. Several of these lectures were illustrated by lantern slides. Among the papers read was that by Ernest Thompson Seton, noted naturalist, on "The voice in the tamaracks," and one by Dr. Paul Bartsch, of the Department of Zoology of George Washington University, on "Hurricanes as a factor changing the nesting habits of the noddy tern on the Tortugas, Florida."

G. W. CLUB ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR CLUBROOM

Chairmen Report at Meeting of Girls Honorary Athletic Association on November 16

Definite plans for the establishment of a room for the Women's G. W. Club were discussed at the second meeting of the club Wednesday, November 16, when the committee chairmen appointed at the last meeting gave their reports.

The recreation room of the Woman's Building has been obtained for the use of the club, and all future meetings will be held there. Helen Prentice was appointed chairman of the committee on decoration. All members of a varsity squad are asked to contribute twenty-five cents for some new furnishings, and donations are solicited.

Myrtle Crouch reported that a talk had been made to the freshmen women to stimulate interest in campus activities.

Plans were made to erect a bulletin board in the Gym on which can be posted all notices pertaining to girls' sports. The board, which is to be placed beside the scales, is to be headed "By the Weigh."

The club will not meet again until the end of the hockey season, when several new members will be added to its lists.

Philippinensian Club To Hold Annual Dance

Benefit Affair to be in January, Proceeds for G. W. Buildings Preparations Being Made

January may still be far off but the members of the Philippinensian Club are already busy preparing for their benefit dance to be held sometime in the first month of next year. The coming dance is believed to eclipse last college year's affair. Like that of last year the proceeds in the January Philippinensian benefit dance will go to the general building fund of the George Washington University.

The affair is in the charge of a committee appointed by the president last Wednesday, with James G. Wingo as chairman, and Demetrio Suguitan and John Soller, members. The belated election of the Philippinensian Club was also held during the last meeting. The following were elected to hold office for the first semester of the college year: Bernard B. Gapuz, president; Felix Piniera, vice-president; Procopio Estrella, secretary; and Uldorico Kuizon, treasurer.

MATH CLUB HEARS TALK ON CIRCLE BY GREENBERG

The Mathematics Club heard Michael Goldberg discuss "Restricted Constructions" on Wednesday, November 16. He showed that the compass is sufficient to perform all Euclidean geometrical constructions. The straight-edge is entirely unnecessary, although its use frequently reduces the number of operations. The original proof of this proposition is due to Mascheroni, an Italian mathematician.

The straight-edge alone will perform only a limited number of Euclidean constructions, but it can perform all of them if we are first given a circle and its center. Steiner, a German mathematician, is the originator of these straight-line constructions.

Mr. Goldberg touched on other types of constructions, including paper-folding.

The next meeting of the Mathematics Club will be held on Wednesday, November 30, at 8 p. m., in Corcoran Hall, Room 22. All interested are invited.

H. G. DOYLE WRITES ON FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Better Paid and Better Prepared Teachers Needed, Says Dean of Men in Article

"If we are to meet the challenge of contemporary civilization, we must have . . . among other things, more teaching of modern foreign languages; and . . . this is just as vital . . . we must have more effective teaching of them," warned the Dean.

National barriers are slowly being lowered and the peoples of the world are relatively closer neighbors than ever before. According to his foreful article on "The Modern Foreign Languages in American Education," which appeared in the "School and Society" magazine.

Dean Doyle advocates the doctrine of Cervantes that "the understanding of foreign languages is the first rung on the ladder of all sciences." "Foreign language study is the only instrument for the sympathetic comprehension of human beings of other races and other climes," agrees Dean Doyle emphatically in connection with the discussion of Dr. H. A. Hollister, of the University of Illinois.

Language Like Money

In the same extract which was quoted by Dean Doyle, Dr. Hollister compares a translation of a foreign language to an exchange of foreign currency. He states that a man nearly approaches the ideal manhood if he has assimilated a second language, but to resort to a translation is equal to being subject to the deduction of the exchanger's usury.

The staple position of modern languages in the curriculum of our schools involves the question, "Shall the man whose spiritual environment is being further widened by higher education be enabled to place himself at the standpoint of one of more of these other nations, be able to enjoy at first hand such a fresh aspect of life; or shall he continue to acquire only at second-hand, by reference and illusion, and perhaps through translation, as much as will most inevitably be assimilated by him in the course of time?"

"Better paid and better prepared teachers are necessary," advises Dean Henry Gratton Doyle, "if American education is to fulfill its function as a purveyor of 'ripe understanding and many civil virtues' from abroad."
